Icewine

GRAPE VARIETIES

In Ontario, Icewine must be made from vitis vinifera grape varieties or the hybrid variety Vidal Blanc. The most popular varieties are Vidal Blanc, Riesling and Cabernet Franc.

Some small lots include Gewürztraminer, Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon. Ontario produces 90% of the world's Icewine.

REGULATION

Icewine production is regulated in Ontario under the VQA Act and regulations. Strict standards are monitored by VQA inspectors, from vineyard to the bottle. Rules cover grape varieties, harvest procedures, winemaking, and testing before the wine is released. No wine may use the term “Icewine” on its label unless it is certified by VQA Ontario.

Icewine is Niagara's gift to wine lovers around the world

Queenston Mile Vineyard

It's about dedication. Respecting tradition, learning your craft, and knowing nothing good ever comes easy. It's about never backing down. Making mistakes, then going right back at it again, year after year. It's about showing what we're made of. So that every bottle is a tribute to the year, the fruit, and the people who made it happen.

Because that's what Queenston is. It's an extra mile. And it's worth it in the end.

Queenston Mile Vineyard is a boutique producer of cool climate Ontario wines from one-of-a-kind terroir. We make wines in highly limited volumes. The reason – we make our wine only from our vineyard on the St. David's Bench and a couple of small parcels from selected vineyards nearby.
