Tasting Notes:

Crafted from old vines nestled along the Niagara Peninsula, this elegant Merlot ignites the senses with intriguing notes of black cherry, anise and cedar on the nose. A dense wine with lots of red raspberry, rosemary and licorice. Great complexity with a full finish.

Food Pairing:

Pair with lean beef dishes, mildly spiced dishes & hearty stews.

Growing Season and Harvest:

Overall, it was a good vintage. The weather patterns affected the growing cycle, with slowed development at the beginning of the season, but then caught up very quickly in the late summer.

Alcohol: 13%
